

The International Journal of Educational and Life Transition (IJELT) is seeking expressions of interest in the role of Deputy Editor.

IJELT is an international peer reviewed journal which publishes articles and multimedia outputs of interest to researchers, practitioners and policy makers in the field of educational and life transitions across the world.

As well as submissions to our open issue, on any relevant topic, IJELT also accepts submissions to the following special collections:

- LGBTQ+ Educational and Life Transitions
- Ageing Through a Transitions Lens
- Transitions from school and beyond
- Early Years Transitions
- Primary-secondary school transitions
- Post school transitions for young people with disabilities

IJELT is widely indexed and has no submission or publication fees.

Deputy Editors are members of the Editorial Team. They work closely with the Editor-in-Chief, Section Editors and other members of the Editorial Board to develop and implement journal strategies, promote the journal and ensure fast and efficient review of submissions.

Essential experience

- Research, policy and/or practice experience in transitions
- Peer reviewing
- Editorial experience
- Good communication skills
- Good administration skills
- Strong interpersonal skills and demonstrated leadership ability

Interested candidates should send their CV and a letter of interest (no more than two sides of A4) to the Editor-in-Chief. In your letter, please describe:

- The reasons for your interest in being a Deputy Editor
- Your motivation and experience related to the DE role you want to undertake
